

NUVO

A Villa of One's Own

Looking to holiday in the Turks and Caicos Islands like a (very VIP) local? The new Beach Enclave North Shore fits the bill. The collection of nine secluded and luxurious villas on Providenciales dots the coast of this tropical paradise, varying from four to five bedrooms (room for eight to 10 guests), all decked out with plush interiors, chic outdoor showers, and dedicated butler and concierge services. After taking to the waves for a swim or a scuba session at the islands' 23-kilometre-long barrier reef, nothing beats firing up the outdoor barbecue with a cocktail in hand and the endless ocean beyond. The best part of a private oasis villa? It's the anti-resort; there's no one else around. Katie Nanton

